

FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE—J. H. NOE.
FOR CIRCUIT ATTORNEY—EDWIN ROWE.
FOR REPRESENTATIVE—D. D. BLACK.
FOR CIRCUIT CLERK—J. E. LINDEN.
FOR CIRCUIT CLERK—J. E. MILLER.
FOR CIRCUIT CLERK—J. E. THOMPSON.
FOR CIRCUIT ATTORNEY—J. B. VICKERS.
FOR CIRCUIT ATTORNEY—J. B. VICKERS.
FOR CIRCUIT ATTORNEY—J. B. VICKERS.
FOR CIRCUIT ATTORNEY—J. B. VICKERS.
FOR CIRCUIT ATTORNEY—J. B. VICKERS.
FOR CIRCUIT ATTORNEY—J. B. VICKERS.

FOR CIRCUIT CLERK OF THE DISTRICT—J. H. NOE.
FOR CIRCUIT CLERK OF THE DISTRICT—J. H. NOE.

All of our candidates have passed their twenty-first birthday, but they will not arrive at their majority until a month hence.

These people may send some one of all of the other county papers for the sake of patronage, but when they want the news they come to THE HERALD.

A VOTE for the Fusion Ticket is a righteous condemnation of Republican disgrace and mismanagement in Kentucky. The election of the Fusion ticket in Kentucky can only be blotted out by votes.

We have the votes to win. Our duty is to get them out. No time is to be lost between now and the election by the Democrats and Populists of Ohio county. Every man on the fusion ticket is worthy of hearty support. The champion of the fusion ticket should see that they get it.

Mr. A. T. DUCKERY, of Butler county, was nominated by the Democrats and Populists at Beaver Dam last Friday for Senator from the Eighth district. Mr. Duckery is a prominent lawyer of Morgantown, highly respected for his integrity and personal worth, and will make a strong race.

Mr. Geo. F. LONG, formerly city editor of the Russellville Herald, has accepted a similar position with the Ledger of that place. Mr. Long is one of the most entertaining and fluent writers on the Kentucky press, and is well skilled in every branch of the newspaper business, and will fill with honor his late assignment.

The initials of the "Free Silver Democrat" who spouts forth in the last issue of the Republican are either "R. A. A." or those of his father "R. A. A." we are at a loss to know which. However, it makes little difference, as both have been voting the Republican ticket for years past.

The simple announcement that John Rhea will speak at the court house in Hartford, October 18th, will be sufficient to draw an immense crowd to hear that talented orator. John has lost none of his fine time and pen, and those who are fortunate enough to be present that day will hear one of the greatest speeches of his life.

Any Populist wanting advice as to how to vote, can get same by reading the Republican. To be sure the editor has not been a Republican long, and only because so through force of circumstances, and the hope of financial success for his paper, yet he feels fully capable of advising the Populists as to what to do in the success of the Republican ticket.

The Hartford Republican, in an effort to be funny, says THE HERALD has been instrumental in converting Ohio county to Republicanism. It has only been a few weeks since that the Republican, in a self-laudatory article, claimed the distinction of having during the last election turned out only Ohio county and the whole District into the Republican column. Now, which of its statements is a poor layman to believe?

HAVING but what little political privilege it ever enjoyed, the Fox ally Republican is now brought to the necessity of the present day, and attempts to wheedle the Populists of Ohio county into a revolt against the Fusion Ticket in order that its own weak party lines may be strengthened. The Populists of Ohio county are men of sense and discernment and they need no magnifying glasses to see the rank hypocrisy which lies behind all these honeyed words and soft soap. Furthermore they do not consider the Republican at all capable of advising anybody upon anything political. A paper whose editor has recently entered into Republican ranks and that by the impulse of pressure brought to bear upon him and not through patriotic motives, is not regarded as reliable political authority, especially when its own political course cannot be real- ized. The Republican is, therefore, strongly discredited and its utterances are not considered reliable.

THE HERALD man approached the Hon. Joe Noe one day last week and asked him the very pointed question, "Have you changed your politics in any way of late?" To which he replied, "No." Being further questioned by other men, he stood upon current issues and impertinent to state just where he "at," he gave evasive replies in every instance. He impresses the public with the hope of the fact that he has no principles, but is willing to be anything at any time, just for the sake of votes.

THE Republican intimates that Messrs. Little and Noe have joined the Republican party. Literally and practically speaking, this is undoubtedly a true statement of the matter, but from the lips of these gentlemen, who claim to be propagating the only sincere pure Democratic principles now in existence, it would seem almost an insult to their creed. Who would have thought that the Little and Noe would have joined the Republican party, and just for the sake of votes?

Less than one month now remains until the election and the political pot is simmering quite lively. That the result will be a decisive victory for the Fusion ticket in this county is now well assured. But victory cannot be gained without effort. It behooves the Democrats and Populists to put in all the spare time possible in the interest of the ticket. The Republican will not have an opportunity to scatter dissent in our ranks, to which no attention should be paid. Their hypocritical talk is well understood. The only relief from Republican mismanagement is by voting the Fusion Ticket.

ONE of the most reprehensible methods of apprehending criminals in their violation of law is by entering into compact with them by patronage, or by aiding them, for the time being, for the sake of the evidence that may in this manner be obtained. When an officer or a private citizen is compelled to enter into such a compact with a criminal in order to obtain incriminating evidence and thus resort to trickery that should be beneath the practice of fair men, it surely shows a lack of courage or conception of manly honor in every branch of the law, but to become a violator yourself, even for a short time, is not demanded under any circumstances to successfully execute the work at hand. It lessens respect for the law and officials, and puts the informer on a common level with the criminal. The very boldness and fairness of the conservators of the law is its bulwark of power.

THERE is a world of pathos contained in the brief sentence, "No home." And yet it is the condition of the life of the poor, who walk the earth to-day, while winter is fast approaching. It means want, suffering, privation, and above all that depth of human misery which one feels when lost from the home of childhood and friendship.

Any Populist wanting advice as to how to vote, can get same by reading the Republican. To be sure the editor has not been a Republican long, and only because so through force of circumstances, and the hope of financial success for his paper, yet he feels fully capable of advising the Populists as to what to do in the success of the Republican ticket.

The dissatisfaction often prevalent among the miners and other earners of the country is principally caused by the low wages for which the men are compelled to work. A prime factor in the prevalence of low wages is the presence of the pauper labor—men who will work for almost a pittance a day and who thus aid in pauperizing the American laborer. Our hodges of immigration stand wide open and the consequence is a constant stream of foreign laborers coming into our country who at once enter into serious competition with legitimate American labor and thus force wages down to a starvation point.

Low wages for the working people and higher profits for the trusts—that is what the Republicans mean by property.

ty with our country and its institutions. This immigration is caused to a great extent by the employers of labor—big corporations that induce pauper labor to come here by glittering description of big wages, &c., in the hope of reducing their big pay roll. Our immigration laws should be amended so as to keep out this undesirable class of immigrants and give the American laborer a chance.

THE ISSUE OF THE CAMPAIGN.

We notice there is a tendency among some of the Democratic newspapers of Kentucky to in a manner deride the silver issue during the pending campaign, under the plea that whatever the result may be, it cannot decide the financial question. This movement strikes us as bad policy and worse politics. A cause that is worth fighting for at all, is worth keeping up, and a suspension of hostilities for even a brief space of time will have a tendency to weaken and kill interest in the great issue. The question has been thrown down by the gold-bug papers and their speakers, who are making this a decisive question, and a failure by the silver men to respond to the challenge, would give too great an appearance of doubt to the cause of the silver. The silver issue is still a national issue and will remain so until victory is attained, and it can only be kept alive by the States maintaining a sympathetic and aggressive campaign. It is true that so far as Kentucky is concerned, the silver issue is still a local issue, but the silver issue is still a national issue and will remain so until victory is attained, and it can only be kept alive by the States maintaining a sympathetic and aggressive campaign.

As a State issue the silver question can hardly be considered paramount to all others, but it ranks alongside and is synonymous with that other prime motive of popular interest—the overthrow of Republicanism in Kentucky. This is something which to a great extent can be accomplished this fall and which commands our immediate and earnest attention. It is our duty to the people of this State to keep the silver issue alive and to keep the Republicanism in Kentucky, and our efforts will take effect at once, if not for a complete overthrow of this party, yet for the overthrow of the Republicanism in Kentucky, and our efforts will take effect at once, if not for a complete overthrow of this party, yet for the overthrow of the Republicanism in Kentucky.

As a State issue the silver question can hardly be considered paramount to all others, but it ranks alongside and is synonymous with that other prime motive of popular interest—the overthrow of Republicanism in Kentucky. This is something which to a great extent can be accomplished this fall and which commands our immediate and earnest attention. It is our duty to the people of this State to keep the silver issue alive and to keep the Republicanism in Kentucky, and our efforts will take effect at once, if not for a complete overthrow of this party, yet for the overthrow of the Republicanism in Kentucky.

As a State issue the silver question can hardly be considered paramount to all others, but it ranks alongside and is synonymous with that other prime motive of popular interest—the overthrow of Republicanism in Kentucky. This is something which to a great extent can be accomplished this fall and which commands our immediate and earnest attention. It is our duty to the people of this State to keep the silver issue alive and to keep the Republicanism in Kentucky, and our efforts will take effect at once, if not for a complete overthrow of this party, yet for the overthrow of the Republicanism in Kentucky.

As a State issue the silver question can hardly be considered paramount to all others, but it ranks alongside and is synonymous with that other prime motive of popular interest—the overthrow of Republicanism in Kentucky. This is something which to a great extent can be accomplished this fall and which commands our immediate and earnest attention. It is our duty to the people of this State to keep the silver issue alive and to keep the Republicanism in Kentucky, and our efforts will take effect at once, if not for a complete overthrow of this party, yet for the overthrow of the Republicanism in Kentucky.

A REPUBLICAN ON TRUSTS.

THE VIEWS WITH REGARD TO THE GROWING tendency of the trusts to monopolize the business of the country, and to the extent to which they are able to do so, is a subject of great interest to the people of this country. The trusts are a new feature in the business of the country, and they are a source of great concern to the people. They are a source of great concern to the people, and they are a source of great concern to the people.

THE VIEWS WITH REGARD TO THE GROWING tendency of the trusts to monopolize the business of the country, and to the extent to which they are able to do so, is a subject of great interest to the people of this country. The trusts are a new feature in the business of the country, and they are a source of great concern to the people. They are a source of great concern to the people, and they are a source of great concern to the people.

THE VIEWS WITH REGARD TO THE GROWING tendency of the trusts to monopolize the business of the country, and to the extent to which they are able to do so, is a subject of great interest to the people of this country. The trusts are a new feature in the business of the country, and they are a source of great concern to the people. They are a source of great concern to the people, and they are a source of great concern to the people.

THE VIEWS WITH REGARD TO THE GROWING tendency of the trusts to monopolize the business of the country, and to the extent to which they are able to do so, is a subject of great interest to the people of this country. The trusts are a new feature in the business of the country, and they are a source of great concern to the people. They are a source of great concern to the people, and they are a source of great concern to the people.

Work of the Coal Trust.

There is every reason to credit the report that the great coal trust has been liberally cowed by the operators. They knew the price of coal would be raised to a point where it would be impossible for them to continue to operate. They knew the price of coal would be raised to a point where it would be impossible for them to continue to operate. They knew the price of coal would be raised to a point where it would be impossible for them to continue to operate.

Republican Property.

Low wages for the working people and higher profits for the trusts—that is what the Republicans mean by property.

FOUND DEAD IN THE RIVER.

TRAGIC ENDING OF A KENTUCKIAN'S TRAGIC LIFE.

Whether it was Accident, Suicide or Murder is Not Definitely Known.

WILD HISTORY OF TWO BROTHERS.

(Continued from Special.)
St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 5.—Charles F. Wing, an attorney from Greenville, Ky., was found dead on a slab at the morgue. His body was taken from the river at the foot of Haver street, in Owensboro, by a negro named William Bailey, shortly before dusk this evening.

Whether it was Accident, Suicide or Murder is Not Definitely Known. Wing arrived in St. Louis last Wednesday morning from his home in Greenville, and secured a room at the Hotel Hamilton, where he remained for a few minutes, and was not seen again by his landlady until she was brought to the morgue to identify his dead body.

Wing was a man about forty-five years of age, and at one time was a prominent member of the bar in Greenville. When the body was searched at the morgue the first thing taken from the inside pocket was a letter to a Miss Bailey, in the first page of which was written the name, "C. F. Wing." On the cover of the book was printed "Compliments of Thomas H. McDermann, insurance agent, 305 and 307 Oval building."

On the inside of the book were written the names of Mrs. King, 205 Eighth street, and Rev. Mr. Mack, Presbyterian church, Owensboro. The rest of the papers were found over carefully, but nothing was found among them that would afford a clue to the cause of his death.

WING FAMILY'S TRAGIC FATE.
The death of Charles F. Wing, concluded a series of tragedies in a family which was at one time one of the most prominent in Kentucky. Charles Wing was the son of Mr. W. M. Wing, who, many years ago, conducted a big mercantile establishment in Owensboro. He was related to a number of the best families in Western Kentucky. He was a brother of Bert Wing, who now serves a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for the murder of his wife in this city. He was also a brother of E. R. Wing, who was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President McKinley, and was taken suddenly ill and died in that country.

Young Charles Wing fell a slave to drink and gambling, and was a notorious gambler and a notorious drinker. He was a brother of Bert Wing, who now serves a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for the murder of his wife in this city. He was also a brother of E. R. Wing, who was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President McKinley, and was taken suddenly ill and died in that country.

Charles Wing was a brother of Bert Wing, who now serves a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for the murder of his wife in this city. He was also a brother of E. R. Wing, who was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President McKinley, and was taken suddenly ill and died in that country.

Charles Wing was a brother of Bert Wing, who now serves a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for the murder of his wife in this city. He was also a brother of E. R. Wing, who was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President McKinley, and was taken suddenly ill and died in that country.

Charles Wing was a brother of Bert Wing, who now serves a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for the murder of his wife in this city. He was also a brother of E. R. Wing, who was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President McKinley, and was taken suddenly ill and died in that country.

Charles Wing was a brother of Bert Wing, who now serves a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for the murder of his wife in this city. He was also a brother of E. R. Wing, who was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President McKinley, and was taken suddenly ill and died in that country.

Charles Wing was a brother of Bert Wing, who now serves a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for the murder of his wife in this city. He was also a brother of E. R. Wing, who was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President McKinley, and was taken suddenly ill and died in that country.

Charles Wing was a brother of Bert Wing, who now serves a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for the murder of his wife in this city. He was also a brother of E. R. Wing, who was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President McKinley, and was taken suddenly ill and died in that country.

Charles Wing was a brother of Bert Wing, who now serves a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for the murder of his wife in this city. He was also a brother of E. R. Wing, who was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President McKinley, and was taken suddenly ill and died in that country.

Charles Wing was a brother of Bert Wing, who now serves a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for the murder of his wife in this city. He was also a brother of E. R. Wing, who was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President McKinley, and was taken suddenly ill and died in that country.

Charles Wing was a brother of Bert Wing, who now serves a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for the murder of his wife in this city. He was also a brother of E. R. Wing, who was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President McKinley, and was taken suddenly ill and died in that country.

Charles Wing was a brother of Bert Wing, who now serves a life sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for the murder of his wife in this city. He was also a brother of E. R. Wing, who was appointed Minister to Ecuador by President McKinley, and was taken suddenly ill and died in that country.

Come to Beaver Dam!

FALL OPENING, 1897

We are now opening our AUTUMN STOCK of General Merchandise, consisting of everything needed from the finest DRESS GOODS to the smallest article needed in every-day life. Now people talk "hard times" and we are very well acquainted with the gentleman, and have been for several years; but listen: The necessity for careful buying is the greater, hence we call your attention to a few things, viz: Qualities and values. Now as to qualities, permit us to say we have no "8 cent coal oil" or "2 cent O. N. T. thread," for the good reason that we cannot buy these goods that way, but we will say emphatically we will sell you a Fine Dress, a Suit, a Fine Pair of Shoes or any other article as cheap as anybody in a legitimate way. As to prices, we have the cheapest freight, and the quickest facilities, can work as hard, and live as close, hence can sell RIGHT, in other words, BARGAINS.

DRESS GOODS.—These have been selected by an experienced "dress clerk," and with an eye to fashion. Examine our stock at once.

LADIES FURNISHING GOODS are important and no time or expense has been spared to make this department complete.

MILLINERY GOODS.—Miss Viola Pirtle has spent several weeks in the city trade, and has learned all the styles, and can furnish anything on this line, and our stock is immense. Call at once.

CLOAKS AND WRAPS.—The markets have been ransacked in the purchase of these goods, and the latest "styles" and "cuts" have been bought.

Finally, we will say that our location and facilities are such that we "can and will sell goods"—not for the fun of it, but for a living, and for the interests of the farmers and their families. Country produce taken at highest cash prices.

Do you ask our prices? Call in and we will show you prices that mean something. Four hundred bushels of old corn wanted at once. Respectfully,

HOCKER & CO.

YOUR PHOTOGRAPH

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

Now anchored at the Hartford wharf.

